

πολλοὶ δὲ τῶν ἀκουσάντων τὸν λόγον ἐπίστευσαν καὶ ἐγενήθη ὁ ἀριθμὸς τῶν ἀνδρῶν ὡς χιλιάδες πέντε.

NET Bible Notes

4:4 But many of those who had listened to

tn Or “had heard.”

the message

tn Or “word.”

believed, and the number of the men

tn In the historical setting it is likely that only men are referred to here. The Greek term ἀνὴρ usually refers to males or husbands rather than people in general. Thus to translate “of the people” would give a false impression of the number, since any women and children were apparently not included in the count.

came to about 5,000.